Summary: Well I was bored so I wrote a prequel to "They're Gone!"
(make sure to read this after "They're Gone") Warning it is very very short

Pre-They're Gone (read after They're gone)

Relena quietly turns the knobs handle easing it open without so much as a squeak. She peers into the darkness and finds her victim and tightens the grip on the weapon in her right hand. Slowly she makes her way toward a bed she stops, the victim talking in her sleep. "There were two people...one was a...and the other.. zzzzzzz" Relena looks down at the sleeping form of Dorothy Catalonia. She looks at Dorothy's face in the moonlight, how she hates that face, especially that one feature.... Taking her weapon she raises it and then stops at the sleeping girl's face the words "hair gone" now readable on her weapon, and squeezes. Relena whispers, as Heero would say. "Eyebrows...im going to remove you."

The End?
